Basic Pinyin rules:
1) Placement of tone marks: 4 tones plus the light tone; tone marks are always above the vowels: (i.e. ǎ lā lá là la). Place the tone mark in the order of "a, o, e, i, u, ü".
2) Abbreviation: for Pinyin "iou", "uei" or "uen", the middle vowel is dropped. They are spelt as "iu", "ui" and "un" in writing. (i.e. "huei" is spelt as "hui"; "kuen" is spelt as "kun")
3) Remove of the 2 dots in "ü": When a final with "ü" come after the initials "j", "q" or "x", the two dots on top of "ü" are removed, (i.e. "ju", "qu" or "xu"). However, if "ü" follows after the initials "l" or "n", the two dots on top of "ü" will remain, (i.e. "lü", "nü").
4) Using "y" and "w" as Initials: Finals "i", "u" or "ü", if without initial before it, "y" or "w" needs to be added.
PS 白色是聲母(white card - Consonants: Initials)... 藍色是韻母(blue card - Vowels: Finals)... 紅色是聲母也是韻母(part of blue cards = both Consonants & Vowels)...
